What happens when you handpick the most incredible, outstanding musicians just to form another high class hard-cock-metal-core band with one goal; to wipe that silly smile off every pop-punk's face? I'll tell you what happens: You get REDUCED!

"If you have big breasts and no dick, we can dig it. But if you're just another pussy you can burn in hell, and you probably won't even like our music either, since you're too busy running in fear from our pumping bass lines, twisted drum solos, "killing-in-the-name-of" guitar riffs and demonic screams." – (Band quote)

REDUCED is one of the most important things to come out of Norwegian music and their goal has remained the same all along: WORLD DOMINATION! Nothing more, nothing less. (Of course as I mentioned above, their only goal is actually to wipe that fucked smile off everyone's face, and continue to make good music... but hey, that's a bonus!)

Their headquarters are situated in Halden, Norway but their music is considered to break numerous laws and regulations all over the world in time to come. With Stig's formidable sense of rhythm to hold the leashes, Robin's orgasm-developing bass, Andreas J.'s & Espen's fanatic and fantastic guitar-gangbanging in addition to Andreas P's "crap in your pants, it's too scary!"- screaming vocals, this fiveheaded monster of music creates a sound never heard before!
